

Youth Early Psychosis—What do we know and what can we do?

"What actually is psychosis, and how do you treat it..."

Dr Iain Macmillan-Consultant Psychiatrist-Frankston Youth Early Psychosis Program & Alfred Psychiatrist

Access, Planning and Early Psychosis Referral Pathway

Alexandra Savage - Manager YMHT & Y-PARC, Peninsula Health Mental Health Service

Current Service Models at Peninsula Health Mental Health Service

Professor Richard Newton- Clinical Director of Peninsula Health Mental Health Service

At the end of this session participants will be able to;

- Identify youth early psychosis signs and symptoms in clients
- Identify aetiology which can lead to Youth Early Psychosis
- Summarize risk factors and/or predictions for developing youth early psychosis
- Understand prevention strategies/early intervention for Youth Early Psychosis clients
- Obtain information on local referral pathways to assist clients with Youth Early Psychosis

When: 23rd July 2019 6:30-8:30pm

Where Frankston Hospital Academic Centre - Level 3 - Enter via main reception

RSVP to ASavage@phcn.vic.gov.au

RACGP Activity number: to be confirmed (4 Cat 2 Points)